Visionary, speaker, writer, teacher, facilitator, consultant and coach.

Lucira Jane Nebelung is the founding principal of Leading as Love®. She has 35 years of experience as a leader, consultant and coach in a wide variety of organizations. She brings a valuable blend of both strategic wisdom and tactical experience in the fields of leadership development, organization effectiveness and development, and change leadership and implementation. She is a passionate leadership commentator and speaker, calling-out where leaders are succeeding and where they are falling short and waking people up to their own leadership responsibilities. Leading as Love is the essential catalyst and social context for the breakthroughs we seek for a thriving world; it generates the ultimate ROI.

Lucira Jane is a radical visionary with the expertise for achieving the purpose, potential and transformation of individuals and business, government, education and religion. She provides inspiration and practical know-how for both leaders and individuals to become catalysts for transformational change. Her writings, presentations, workshops, consulting and coaching challenge the way we think about the meaning and root causes of success and our responsibilities for creating the world we live in: Love makes a leader a leader.

Lucira Jane has both a B.S. and an M.A. in Psychology and is certified in Executive Coaching. She is currently writing her second book, The Heart of the Matter: Leading as Love. Lucira Jane has authored a multitude of business and professional articles and presentations. She is a frequently invited guest instructor in executive graduate programs and is a faculty member of the Center for Leadership Studies/Graduate Institute's, Master of Arts in Organizational Leadership (MAOL).
